

For Lent: Read through a Gospel

This year our church is asking its members to participate in reading through an entire Gospel during the season of Lent. (Lent is from February 17 through April 3) We have chosen the Gospel of Luke since it combines with the lectionary readings which will be used in worship each week. We have broken the Book of Luke into small sections so there is only a short reading to be done each day. Below is the suggested reading schedule.
